

Duo 35 TMEA Tour 2019
Texas

Michael Dean, clarinet
Todd Oxford, alto saxophone

Coppell High School
Coppell, Texas

Concert, 12:45 p.m.
Friday, February 8

Tarleton State University
Stephenville, Texas

Concert, Noon
Master Class, 2 p.m.
Monday, February 11

Texas Music Educators Clinic/Convention (TMEA)
Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center
North Lobby
San Antonio, Texas

Concert, 2 p.m.
Friday, February 15

Special thanks to TMEA, Gerry Miller,
Dmitry Perevertailenko, Andrew Stonerock,
Robert Fruehwald, Jeffrey Hoover, and Anne-Leslie Dean.

Michael Dean and Todd Oxford are available for clinics, master classes and performances separately and together. Contact Dr. Dean at www.clarinetmike.com and Dr. Oxford at www.toddoxfordsaxophonist.com.

Duo 35
TMEA
Tour 2019

Featuring

Michael Dean
Clarinet

&

Todd Oxford
Alto Saxophone

TMEA Convention Center North Lobby
Friday, February 15, 2 p.m.

Duo 35 TMEA Tour 2019
February 8-15, 2019
Coppell, Stephenville, & San Antonio, Texas

www.clarinetmike.com
www.toddoxfordsaxophonist.com

American Clarinetist Michael Dean “ClarinetMike” performs and teaches internationally and across the USA to consistent praise such as, "world-class clarinetist and pedagogue," "consummate performer," "inspirational," "outstanding teacher," "super," "brilliant performer," and “one of the best clinicians I have ever seen." Dr. Dean’s career is headlined by appearances at Carnegie Hall, ClarinetFest, NACWPI, Royal Northern College of Music, and Eastman School of Music, with recent recitals and master classes in Italy, Canada, Spain, Alabama, Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, Louisiana, and Texas. In July, he will return to Vipiteno, Italy as Clarinet Artist Faculty in Residence at Orfeo Music Festival 2019. He is featured on 5 commercial CD's with a new CD due in 2019. For 11 years he was clarinetist with the Paducah Symphony and has given more than 500 clinics, master classes and performances at high schools, universities, conferences and other venues. As "ClarinetMike," he writes for his widely-viewed ClarinetMike Blog, the Internet’s #1 clarinet blog read in 150 countries on 6 continents: clarinetmike.wordpress.com After a successful 25 years of teaching clarinet at the university level, he relocated to his native Texas due to family concerns. He is an active clarinet performer, teacher, and clinician based in Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas. He’s a BG France Performing Artist. Professional website is clarinetmike.com.

Todd Oxford has appeared as a concert artist, recording artist and on radio and television in Europe, Asia, Mexico, Canada, and across the USA. Recent engagements include Carnegie Hall, Merkin Hall, CAMI Hall in New York, and Texas Rangers Ballpark performing for 30,000 fans. International appearances include Europe, Mexico, Canada, People’s Republic of China, Thailand, and Indonesia. He has appeared on the artist rosters of Columbia Artists Management, Texas Commission on the Arts, and Arts Mid-West. His professional awards include two consecutive New York Debut Awards, six Global Music Awards, Grammy Award nomination, and a recent feature in Billboard Magazine. He appears on eighteen commercially available recordings on the Equilibrium, Mark, Navona, Kairoi, and JLG record labels with worldwide distribution via iTunes, Spotify, Amazon, and major online retailers. He is an Artist Endorser for Eastman Saxophones and Associate Professor of Saxophone at Texas State University. Professional website is toddoxfordsaxophonist.com

Duo 35 TMEA Tour 2019 Texas

Michael Dean, clarinet
Todd Oxford, alto saxophone

Program

The Easy Winners (1901).....Scott Joplin (1868-1917)
(clarinet & alto saxophone) Arr. by Terry Kenny

Sweet and Go (2014).....Armando Ghidoni (b.1959)
(alto saxophone)

Plaisir d’amour (2017).....Robert Fruehwald (b.1957)
(clarinet & alto saxophone)

When Armenian Butterflies Dream (2015) .Jeffrey Hoover (b.1959)
(clarinet)

Maple Leaf Rag (1899).....Scott Joplin (1868-1917)
(clarinet & alto saxophone) Arr. by Terry Kenny

Michael Dean’s CD’s and Todd Oxford’s CD’s are available for purchase and download at iTunes, Amazon, Spotify, Napster, CDBaby, vcisinc.com and other vendors.